

Sir, I am a small business owner and I am not happy with the do not call list, because of all the records we have to keep with who we called, what phone we used etc. We are not telemarketers, we call on people who are referred to us by others we have helped. Please consider making some changes which will allow us to call referrals from people who are happy and excited by what we do for families. Thank you